Shout out to Mike Strausbough for all his effort in organizing the parade over the years.

My term as your Commander is up. I wish to express to all Members "Legion/SAL/ALA and the Boy Scouts" my greatest thanks for all your support these past couple of years. I hope you all will continue to show your support to the next Board of Officers, and keep our Post 282 a fun place to belong to.

SONS OF THE AMERICAN LEGION

Sunday May 28th is Post 282 Memorial Day Service & Parade. SAL Service & Wreath Laying at Woodsboro Memorial is at noon, with Legion Family Parade beginning at 1:30, then service at Post 282. Many thanks to all our SAL & Legion Family members for all the help with Post 282 projects & functions over the last couple months. It was truly a "team effort" getting the old ceramic tile floors taken up & hauled away before the new laminate flooring was installed in the downstairs dining rooms & hallway. A big job for a big improvement. Special thanks to SAL Past Cmdr Mike E. Abrecht for all his hard work in so many projects. We now have SAL baseball hats available – American made quality hat for $20! SAL is sponsoring "Lotta Lottery Tickets" raffle $10 for chance to win total of $500 (1 @ $300 & 2 @ $100) in MD Lottery scratch-off tickets. Drawing will be held after 100 tickets sold! Don't forget Queen of Hearts drawing is every Thursday in Club. SAL is making donation to Platoon Veteran Services Center for assistance to our Veterans in need. Election of 2023-24 officers is May 10 at 7 pm. As my term as Commander winds down, I want to thank each & every SAL & Legion Family Member for your cooperation & for a great year.

God bless our Veterans & our Legion Family!
